Platters to Share

Any time!

The 'fab favourites' selection board
Grab a friend and decide your favourite moment in the novel. You will need to give a detailed explanation for your choice. This could be presented as a presentation, a short film, Powerpoint or a shared written response.

The 'perfect playlist' presentation platter
You can team up with a friend, create a playlist of songs that fit each Act of the play. You can choose as many as you like.

The 'show and tell' sharer
Chose a theme and together create an A3 poster/collage to display your ideas about how it is developed in the play. Make it as arty as you like!

Salads & Rice (Week 1)

Three peppered predictions
Write three predictions for what could happen to the characters in the play.

Need-to-know noodles
Give me a quick-context-low down on Elizabethan drama or tragedy plays and how this influenced Romeo and Juliet.

Freshly Grilled Burgers (Week 2)

Tragedy Burger with a massive portion of death
List the different conventions of tragedy plays and how we see this in Romeo & Juliet

Heavenly Veggie Burger
Create a mind map of celestial imagery quotations from the play and explain what they represent

Quarter Pounding
Explore the violence in Romeo and Juliet and its role in foreshadowing the tragedy. You can do this as a short film, ppt, piece of writing or voice note.

Flavour-packed Wraps (Week 3)

Grilled Revision Wrap
Create ten quiz questions and answers that will help others revise. You can use Quizizz!

Pitta Perfection
Improve a piece of work you have completed in class.

Tasty terms in a glossary gravy
Serve up ten new words you have learned from this unit used in context of Romeo and Juliet.

Edible Explosions
Pick apart three quotations from the play, exploring what individual words and any language techniques imply or suggest.

Kids' Meals (Week 4)

Delicious Doodles
Draw an image of one of the characters from the play and label it with at least five quotations from the text.

Fun Fact Sundae
Create a detailed fact file about Shakespeare.

Sides & More (Week 5)

Side – character coleslaw
Explain why Friar Lawrence, Paris or the Nurse are essential to the plot.

A portion of quotation connections
Find three quotations from the play that you think link and explain the connection between them.

Sensational staging with relish
Imagine you are going to direct the play. Plan: the era you would set it in, costumes and which real actors will play each part. Explain your choices.
